“If a patient leaves the office empty-handed....”

Join us for a humorous bedtime story that parallels a day in your life as an office manager! Take an eye opening look at the secret to unloading our workloads. Be in attendance to receive your well deserved confidence boosting packet!

Presentation by Shelley Renee

Have the practice you want: Peaceful, Productive and Profitable

It's time we bring fun back to dentistry!! You worked way too hard to get here, to let things like leading a team, and overhead bog you down. Stay in the lane you love! Outsource the rest. I am a true believer that you work from your strengths and delegate the rest. It makes for a happy life.
